Chill-Out Modular

by Gordon Guillaumier

Chill-Out is a modular collection of lounges, armchairs, ottomans and side tables offering a harmony of simplicity and precision.

Designed by Gordon Guillaumier for Tacchini, this modular collection of lounges is available in two sizes, and with the versatility of armrests, no armrests, or single armrests to the left or right hand side. A collection of table tops in Carrara or Basaltine marble may be added to the end sections of the lounge to allow a series of configurations for public and corporate settings. To extend the possibilities available, companion ottomans, with or without the table top surface, can be added to the arrangement.

Fabric or leather upholstery may be specified from the house collection with frame finishes including white or mid grey powdercoat or matt chrome.

The Chill-Out collection also includes armchairs, lounges and low tables which can be used as stand alone items or within a modular composition.
