Arcos Armchair

By Lievore Altherr

Minimalist in its design yet heavily influenced by the Art Deco period is the Arcos armchair, designed by Lievore Altherr for Arper.

A companion piece for the lounge and chair, the Arcos armchair may be upholstered in a range of fabrics and leathers from Arper's house range. The sled frame and integrated armrest are fabricated from aluminium and are available in a polished finish or from a selection of five house powdercoat colours including Black, Blue, Ochre, Red Earth or Green.
