The Dizzie side table is characterised by its unusual super-elliptical shape top and colourful base options. The table top is always white, however the underside of the table top and supporting column and base have the choice of 4 house colours to add vibrancy to any situation, or a solid white finish is also available.

To add a sense of warmth to your setting, the Dizzie side table is also available with an oak veneer table top in house stains of natural, white or black on a textured anthracite powdercoat table base.

The Dizzie side table in all white or in white with black base and support columns are stocked items. If out of stock or if another finish is specified the lead time may be up to 14 weeks.
